Announcement June 28, 2010

Dear Friends and Colleagues: Greetings!

On Monday, June 28 2010, PRforPeople is collaborating with Dave Bresler and his NYC-based Network!Network! Join this community of biz dev professionals, entrepreneurs and business leaders who are meeting to find synergies and make connections that expand business.

We bring together professionals from diverse sectors and businesses to support one other in the pursuit of professional excellence in both career and community. The purpose is to recognize each participant's unique place in the current market economy so we can provide referrals to help grow each other's business.

Peer-to-peer. Business-to-business. Across industries and sectors. We empower professionals to thrive in their business.

Best Regards,
Patricia Vaccarino,
